Revised 02/2022

Marcellus Place Apartments

Marcellus Place is a rental community for families which has been fully renovated to provide modern, convenient, comfortable and affordable living. This community is located in Reidsville, North Carolina and offers eighty-two beautiful one-, two- and three-bedroom apartments.

All apartments include a fully equipped kitchen with range and refrigerator, carpeting, central air and ceiling fans. Most apartments also feature an outdoor patio. The property also provides an on-site office, a beautifully appointed clubhouse which has an area for children, gathering area for adults, a coin-operated laundry and computer center with internet access. The property has seasonal gatherings such as a summer cook-out and holiday parties.

To live in this special Tax Credit community for families, one need not be wealthy. Income limits are revised annually and contact the Site Manager for any updates.
